

Amanda L. Crider

(270)836-8645

United States

amandacrider@yahoo.com

Career Objective Professional Corporate Flight Attendant

I am a dedicated team player that thrives in a customer oriented; fast paced environment and possess a meticulous work ethic. I am seeking a position where these attributes in addition to my ability to provide superior, professional customer service can be utilized.

Certification and Training

Present status Beyond & Above Corporate Flight Attendant Training Fort Lauderdale, FL

- Emergency Training that follows FAA guidelines for Parts 91, 125, and 135 operating requirements.
- First Aide, CPR and AED
- Self Defense Training and Awareness
- In-flight Catering, Ordering and Food Safety
- Food Garnishing and Wine Presentation

Relevant Experience

January 2004-November 2008 Mesa Airlines Denver, CO

Part 121 Flight Attendant

- Ability to interact professionally with a diverse audience and perform consistently while working under time restraints and irregular conditions.
- Ability to effectively handle challenging situations with poise and diplomacy and recognize and respond to a variety of emergency situations, including medical emergencies and security-related situations.
- Worked as a team to consistently provide leadership, service and information to passengers and create an inclusive in-flight experience.

Education

November 2003 Inflight Careers Online Flight Attendant Training Course

1999-2002 Indiana Bible College Indianapolis, IN International Studies

High School Diploma

Professional Accreditations/Awards

2008 Recognized for Best On Time Performance, Mesa Airlines

2008 Ranked 1st in Best Completion, Mesa Airlines

Willing to relocate